The permit shall be issued for a period of one year, and each applicant shall pay an annual fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). E. If the applicant does not make the modifications pursuant to the notice in subsection (d) within the time limit specified therein, or if the application does not clearly show that the collection, transportation, processing or disposal of solid wastes will create no public health hazard or be without harmful effects upon the environment, the application shall be denied and the applicant notified by the health officer, in writing, stating the reason for such denial. If modifications have been made, the applicant shall reapply for a permit as set forth in subsections (b) and (c). No permits authorized by this chapter shall be transferable from person to person.

G. In order to insure compliance with the laws of this state, with this chapter and with the rules and regulations authorized herein, the health officer is authorized to inspect all phases of solid waste management within the city. In all instances where such inspections reveal violations of this chapter, the rules and regulations authorized herein for the storage, collection, transportation, processing or disposal of solid waste, or the laws of the state, the health officer shall issue notice for each such violation stating therein the violation or violations found, the time and date and the corrective measure to be taken, together with the time in which such corrections shall be made.

H. If the corrective measures have not been taken within the time specified, the health officer shall suspend or revoke the permit or permits involved in the violation. Extensions of time may be given if an extension will permit correction and if no public health hazard is created by the delay.

I. Any person who feels aggrieved by any denial of permit, notice of violation, or order issued pursuant thereto of the health officer, may, within ten (10) days of the act for which redress is sought appeal directly to the city administrator in writing, setting forth in a concise statement the act being appealed and the grounds for its reversal.
